ATMOSPHERE		Always cool and always ready for any opportunity.	A wine just waiting to jump from the fridge to a chilled glass by the pool.	Where else but on a boat eating tapas under the hot sun.	It's the day to experiment in the kitchen – with a wine from the cellar that's always sure to please.	This bottle I open when I like to surprise, to shake up amateur friends, before tackling the serious things.	I crack open this wine when I want to surprise my wine buff friends, before getting down to the serious stuff.	The Mercredi 12h30 white will know how to exalt your moments of joy with your family or friends.	We're outside under the pines and our voices are a bit louder.	Wednesday at noon or not, the perfect red to share precious moments with family and friends.	A new look, a new philosophy, but still the same family passion.	I love to surprise friends with something rare – what better than a unique white from the sandstone hills of the Minervois.	Time for something different, surprising, elegant and far from Bordeaux or Burgundy, a wine that talks for itself!	I compare the wine I sip with a sculpture worthy of Michelangelo: fine structure, movement, grace, and such a bold presence.	I end the perfect dinner in front of a crackling fire.	For magical and unexpected moments - the best times always deserve the best wines.
